Feb 14, 2013 – Kriyayoga Kumbha Mela News

Glorious Presence of Vasant Panchami Within

Vasant Panchami is comprised of two words. Vasant is known as the spiritual blossoming of five great divine lotuses present within the divine cave of the brain and spinal cord. Devoted practice of Kriyayoga allows blossoming to occur at the bank of the Holy Ganga present within a person. The blossoming of the five lotuses means awakening of the five great Angelic powers within, known as the power of the five Pandavas in the great epic, Mahabharata.

Because of this the spiritual festival, Vasant Panchami is observed. After this, there is perfect spiritual illumination of the devotee of Kriyayoga meditation, which is known as Magh Purnima. Paush Purnima, Mauni Amaavasya, Vasant Panchami and Magh Purnima are various stages of spiritual advancement when a person is seeking Self-Realization through the fastest technique of Kriyayoga meditation. International spiritual leader Swami Shree Yogi Satyam delivered this message to pilgrims attending the Kriyayoga Camp at Mukti Marg in Kumbha Mela.

Swamiji stated that all people are very fortunate to be gathered during the time of Kumbha Mela at the bank of Holy Ganga River in Allahabad. This is the highest ritual recreation in the form of spirituality presented in the Kumbha Mela practiced by many. It is one of the highest and marvelous entertainment, however, it cannot bring self-realization. It is far better than other forms of traditional recreation such as a movie or sightseeing.
