Feb 18, 2013 – Kriyayoga Kumbha Mela News

Kriyayoga is Incarnation of God in Present Ascending Dwapar Yuga

The dual concept of pain-pleasure, comfort-discomfort, loss-gain, sins-virtues, good-bad are producing profound tiredness and because of that people feel distress and are not able to experience the real Truth behind sense perceptions and analysis. When the burden becomes too much, then humans touch the consciousness of Truth knowingly or unknowingly, which produces deep sleep.

Kriyayoga practice is the conscious oneness with the Truth and makes a person realize that one does not need sleep if they are able to feel oneness with the Truth all the time. All people who are not deeper practitioners of Kriyayoga meditation are forced by God to experience Truth, unknowingly, and enter into deep sleep. In deep sleep a person does not have the egoistic perception of duality and forceful inactivity is brought to all parts of the human consciousness. This repeated inactive perception creates a hunger for it, which further creates biochemical and physiological changes in the visible structure of human consciousness. This allows the body to undergo changes like aging, osteoporosis and dystrophy, which all lead to the permanent stoppage of activity known as death.

Kriyayoga Brings A United World Guided By God-consciousness

Through the Kriyayoga practice, a person can have constant oneness with the Truth and is able to keep the phenomenon of death away up to any desired time. This was said by international spiritual leader, Swami Shree Yogi Satyam to pilgrims attending the Kriyayoga Camp at Mukti Marg in Kumbha Mela.

Swami Satyam further explained that in the course of practicing Kriyayoga meditation a person experiences daily more peace, joy, life and vitality than the previous day and when the devotee becomes perfectly one with the Kriyayoga then they roar like a spiritual lion to find death here and there but death never appears.

It is the supreme fortune for the greatest spiritually democratic nation, India, that Parabrahma has incarnated in present Ascending Dwapar Yuga in the form Immortal Kriyayoga meditation which is available at the Kriyayoga Ashram all of the time.

Kriyayoga classes are conducted at two locations. At the Kriyayoga Camp at Mukti Marg in Kumbha Mela, classes are conducted at 8 to 10 a.m. and 4 to 6:30 p.m. At Mori Road, class is at 11 p.m. to 1 a.m. All are most welcome to attend and participate in the Kriyayoga classes. All classes are attended by people travelling from all over India as well as abroad from countries such as Canada, USA, Brazil, Czech Republic, Russia, France, South Africa, England, Australia, Lebanon, etc.
