Feb 20, 2013 – Kriyayoga Kumbha Mela News

Enlightening Revelations Behind Angel and Devil Consciousness

Enlightening revelations of the Srimad Bhagavad Gita were showered upon the pilgrims from various countries attending the Kriyayoga meditation Camp at Mukti Marg in Kumbha Mela. Opening the hidden truth in the 2nd verse of the 1st chapter of Bhagavad Gita, international spiritual leader of the Kriyayoga movement, Swami Shree Yogi Satyam, explained that in the course of devoted practice of Kriyayoga meditation a devotee is able to perceive the existence of all persons as nothing but the consciousness of angels in the form of the glorious visible structure of the human being. Swamiji stated that the day when Kriyayoga will first be placed in each home of Uttar Pradesh and Bihar, it will demonstrate the exact effect of Gautam Buddha and Yogeshwar Krishna to cover all places of the world with the Eternal message that one Eternal Spirit or Parabrahma has become all.

Explaining the 3rd verse of 1st chapter of the Srimad Bhagavad Gita, Swamiji explained that the posterior surface of the human body where head and spine is located is the special site where if one places their concentration a person experiences that there is no existence of devil consciousness anywhere in the Cosmos. He said that the presence of devils is nothing but the juvenile (immature) form of angelic consciousness showing childlike, naughty behaviour. When devils are depicted in the Biblical and Hindu Scriptural movies as ugly, evil, scary faces they are the actually the same reflection of the faces of those humans who are murderers and robbers by nature.

Through the practice of Kriyayoga, a person can remodel these ugly demonic faces and transform them into beautiful divine angelic faces. Fortunately, Kriyayoga meditation is available to all at the Kriyayoga Ashram in Jhunsi, Allahabad and Yog Fellowship Temple in Kitchener, Ontario, Canada.
