Kriyayoga Meditation Reveals the Infinite Glory of the Human Being

Kriyayoga meditation teaches the structure and function of the visible and invisible Cosmos bringing the realization of Truth by which a person is liberated from all troubles and ignorance and enjoys the state of liberation (Mukta-awastha).

Teaching and providing practice to all pilgrims from various countries, international Kriyayoga spiritual leader Swami Shree Yogi Satyam explained that the invisible existence of human beings is able to change various stages of consciousness into twenty-four elements of creation. These same elements are arranged and created into the visible existence of the beautiful structure of the human body. The glory of the human body is par excellence. It has the highest Omnipotent magnetic properties and charges the environment wherever it travels. The human body is able to transform radiations of various frequencies, solid-liquid-gases, grains, seeds and fruits of plants, and the lifetronic aura of animals into the state of Omniproductive consciousness (Praana). This consciousness (Praana) flows within the brain, spinal cord, cranial and spinal nerves.

Swamiji further stated that the realization of various stages of heaviness-lightness, heat-cold, rigidity-flexibility and activity-inactivity are the clear presence of the spiritual engineering where great transformation of radiations, plant products, animal products occur into the human body composed of bones and muscles, blood and lymph and various structures like lungs, heart, kidneys, endocrine and exocrine glands, etc. Through the practice of Kriyayoga meditation we experience that the human body is a wonderful unique lifetronic structure which works for the
